FAIRFIELD

To Give a Play—Donations to the Fair—Case of Cavanaugh—Sent to Jail—Camp from Stratford—Baseball Yesterday—Personal.

Mrs. H. G. Beach and Mrs. Raymond Beach, have gone by trolley to Bethlehem for a two weeks outing.
Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Beach expect to occupy their new house on Center street about the first of September.
Station agent Purdy's auto of Southport, recently collided with a wagon but by sheer good luck a serious accident was avoided.

Mrs. R. A. Seymour is reported to have been visiting friends in Simsbury.

The Misses Greenwood of Bridgeport and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur S.
Jones and son, have been visiting a month at Mrs. C. E. Bulkeley's.

Saturday last workmen began to work on the spire of St. Paul's church, which for a long time has been twisted from the perpendicular position, leaning towards the south east. It is said to have been the victim of a severe storm. The spire is now standing upright, and when it does the town's people will rejoice for it has long been a sorry sight to see.

It is announced that the young people of the Methodist church of Southport propose to act a little play called "The School at Blueberry Corners." It came up before Justice Bacon Wednesday, such as many wish to maintain in town, but graded schools have come to stay.

Mrs. Mabel Osgood Wright has presented the managers of the Fireman's fair, with a barrel of flour. It has been thankfully received. At the last meeting of the firemen it was decided to send a special vote of thanks to all who have contributed to the success of the fair.

The case of Mr. George Cavanaugh, who lives in what used to be called the "financial district" of the town, not far from the Aluminum foundry, came up before Justice Bacon Wednesday. A man a few days ago and was disposed of. Mr. Cavanaugh was charged with intoxication, assault, breach of the peace and abusive language. A quorum was at the bottom of the trouble, as usual and Mr. Cavanaugh had no defense. He was fined $2 on each indictment and as he appealed the case and could not put up a bond of $100, he was sent to jail to await the action of the Superior court.

Prof. Ewann spent Sunday in New York.

Mr. Benjamin Betts was taken sick on Saturday, and went to his home to recover.

Mr. James R. Bergen of Springfield, Mass., is in town visiting relatives.

Mr. Conrad Buckingham of Southport has given a ton of coal to the Firemen's Fair.

Miss Eleanor Morehouse has returned from Pittsfield, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. William Deyo are expected from Europe on the 23rd inst.

When last heard from they were touring in Ireland.

The Olmstead boys, from Stratford, Nathan and Harold, are camping at Fairfield beach. They have as guests Harry Barnum and Webster Conine of the same town.

They are taking two mile runs from Main street down Penfield avenue to the beach. They have a tent and all the fun one can imagine.

Miss Anna Hawkhurst of Norwalk is visiting Miss Bertha Hawkins.

Miss Nellie Doyle and sister are in Northampton for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Samuel Jennings recently gave a family party at Compo beach.

The Kelsey family is home from Plainville.

Yesterday the Fairfields played the Lincolns a game of 12 innings, the score resulting 5 to 4 in favor of the Lincolns. The pitching was good on both sides. McGarry struck out 12 men and Rhoadsback of Bridgeport struck out 14. The Lincolns had a picked team from the Newfields, the U. M. C. and the Yost and had a player on the 3rd base who has signed with O'Rourke. With all that Fairfield gave them a strong fight.
Ambrose Smith, 2nd base, was badly spiked and had to be taken home.
Heffernan got into the game and played like a professional. There was a crowd of between three and four hundred present.

The Rubber shop team and the Old Fairfield played yesterday, winning 13 to 1. They had a strong team and a good catcher from the Ridgefields.
The Stars hope to get a Darien team Sunday. The Stars Juniors played the Woodlakes of Bridgeport yesterday and won.

John Crusack, a well known young man of this town, a conductor on the trolley line, was quite severely injured on Saturday evening, at Hard's corner in Stratford, by being struck by the hood of an auto belonging to Mr. William C. Bucklew, a manufacturer of this place. In turning the corner, the auto came too near the car and as Crusack was on the running board, the accident followed. The young man is now at his home, suffering from bruises.

The late R. P. Curtis of Southport gives $2,000 to Trinity church, and the rest of his fortune estimated at half a million goes to his wife absolutely.
She is his eldest son, E. L. Wells.
Curtis, are to be the executors. Dr.
Joseph L. Hetzel and Arthur O. Jennings are named as appraisers of the estate.

Placing Statue of the Virgin—The Coming Fair of Assumption Church

—A Horse Thief—A Boy Kidnapped

The Beach and Baseball—Personal Mention.

Saturday forenoon at exactly 10:30 o'clock, the Carrar marble statue of the Virgin of the Assumption, which was placed in its niche on the facade of the Church of the Assumption. The statue arrived from Italy a week ago and was placed by Father Duggan last Saturday forenoon. It was raised to its permanent position. Including the pedestal it stands 6 feet high and weighs 400 pounds. A set of electric lights has been placed in the arch of the niche so that the head and face of the statue can be illuminated on great feast days. And yesterday was the feast day of the Assumption of the Virgin into Heaven. A number of people assembled at the placing of the statue. The work proceeded successfully without a hitch, under the care of D. P.
McKenney, the well known marble carver of this town. The statue is a work of art, and represents the Virgin in an attitude of repose and deep meditation.

Men were at work last week decorating the old Catholic church for the coming fair, which is to be held by the parishioners of Father Duggan for the benefit of the Church of the Assumption. The interior of the church will be brilliant with bunting and the flags of all nations. The fair opens on Thursday night and will continue for ten days, being held three days of each week. Many valuable donations for the fair have been received including a handsome couch from D.
M. Read & Co., and a Morris chair from A. J. Collins & Co. of Norwalk and an elegant sideboard from a donor whose name has not as yet been made public.

The statement is made that thousands of dollars worth of San Pedro Gold Mining Stock is held by people of this town and Norwalk, and that it is about to be sold to another company called the Yassabellita Mining Company. If the old stockholders wish to get into the new concern they are advised to whack up to the tune of 2 cents a share.

Negro Fireman Gets

Loan From Vanderbilt

Ashville, N. C., Aug. 16.—George Logan, a negro locomotive fireman on the Southern Railway, will receive a loan from George W. Vanderbilt today. Some time ago Logan was shoveling coal into the engine of the train when he observed that George W. Vanderbilt's private car was attached to the train. He wrote a note on a piece of paper he borrowed from the conductor and got a friendly porter to convey it to Vanderbilt's car, where it was received.

The note said that the writer had once sold to Mr. Vanderbilt a piece of land which now formed part of the estate and that he was about to lose his little home because he lacked $500.
He asked if Mr. Vanderbilt would lend him this.

Logan received a reply to see Mr.
Vanderbilt in New York. He got a pass and went to New York, and told his story to Mr. Vanderbilt. He was satisfied that if he would call at the State office to-day he would get a check for $500.
